

stoned, cold, dead.

If you are going to drink, stay warm. Alcohol plus cold weather increases your risk of hypothermia.

Hypothermia means your body—brain, heart, and lungs—get too cold to work.

You can start freezing to death before you even know it. If you are going to drink, stay warm. Tell a friend.